

TINA WILKINSON, Briar Hill PS, RMIT Tutor, AGTV Committee Member

Wetter Wahnsinn

On this page is my Wetter Wahnsinn Spiel, a simple but fun way to practise and consolidate the basic weather vocabulary, with room for extension using sentences as well. I used the game board with Grade 1/2 composite classes, and I think you could use the resources into early secondary classes.

I created the game board using Canva. You can access plenty of templates with a free account. Set one up and try this link to Canva link for gameboard templates:

<https://www.canva.com/s/templates?query=game+board>

Logically, we also worked on seasons and months, and this led us into learning to talk about season-appropriate clothing! This culminated in a seasonal Modenschau, where four different groups presented outfits for the four seasons! We had a lot of fun.

I bought some resources from Eduki, including:

Kleidung

<https://eduki.com/de/material/163630/die-kleidung-daz>

Jahreszeiten und Wetter (flipbook)

<https://eduki.com/de/material/254376/rund-ums-jahr-flip-book-eine-bastelvorlage-fur-die-themen-jahreszeiten-monate-kalender>

A regular highlight was getting up and singing Wetter by Suppermovers, a real Ohrwurm and great for learning and using weather vocabulary.

https://youtu.be/knzT2HDiin0?si=23RU4BK_7cyyyAGh

Download these boards from the AGTV website under Teaching Resources: Games for the Classroom.

<https://agtv.vic.edu.au/resources/games-for-the-classroom/>

